

FROM USD 2,250 Per person	DURATION 7 Days / 6 Nights 7 days on the mountain via the Rongai Route	TRIP STYLE Private Trip private Kilimanjaro climb with full camping support	DESTINATIONS Nalemoru Gate ? Simba Camp ? Second Cave ? Kikelewa Camp ? Mawenzi Tarn ? Kibo Hut ? Uhuru Peak ? Horombo Hut ? Marangu Gate Nalemoru Gate, Simba Camp, Mawenzi Tarn, Kibo Hut, Uhuru Peak	BEST FOR Couples, Honeymooners, Families, Friends, Private Groups, Adventure Travelers, First-Time Visitors quieter trail seekers, gradual ascent, better acclimatization
--	---	---	---	---

Overview

Rongai Route 7 Days is a well-paced Mount Kilimanjaro climbing package designed for trekkers who want a quieter approach, a gradual ascent profile, and solid altitude progression before summit night. Organized by Hike Africa Tours and Safaris, this route starts on the northern side of Kilimanjaro near the Kenyan border and is known for being less crowded than many southern routes. The trail begins in forest and then opens into moorland and alpine desert, giving climbers a clear sense of how the mountain changes with altitude. One of the main strengths of the Rongai Route is its steady climb, which many trekkers find easier to manage than more rushed ascents. The route also offers beautiful views of Mawenzi Peak before the summit push to Uhuru Peak. This package is ideal for private climbers, friends, couples, and small groups looking for a balanced Kilimanjaro trek with expert mountain support, a quieter trail, and a clean, professional mountain setup.

Highlights

- Array

Inclusions & Exclusions

INCLUSIONS

- Array

EXCLUSIONS

- Array

Itinerary

Day 1

Nalemoru Gate to Simba Camp

Meals: Lunch, Dinner | Accommodation: Simba Camp

After registration at Nalemoru Gate, begin the trek through montane forest before entering the open moorland zone. This first day is a steady climb and a good introduction to the quieter northern side of Kilimanjaro. Arrive at Simba Camp for dinner and overnight.

ACCOMMODATION

Simba Camp

ACCOMMODATION IMAGE

—

Day 2

Simba Camp to Second Cave

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Accommodation: Second Cave Camp

Leave Simba Camp and continue across open moorland with wide mountain views and a comfortable walking pace. The route today is not overly demanding, which helps the body continue adjusting to altitude. Reach Second Cave for dinner and overnight.

ACCOMMODATION

Second Cave Camp

ACCOMMODATION IMAGE

—

Day 3

Second Cave to Kikelewa Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Accommodation: Kikelewa Camp

Today the trail climbs more steadily toward Kikelewa Camp. The landscape becomes more rugged and the air feels thinner as you move higher on the mountain. This is an important day for acclimatization, and climbers are encouraged to walk slowly and stay well hydrated.

ACCOMMODATION

Kikelewa Camp

ACCOMMODATION IMAGE

—

Day 4Kikelewa Camp to Mawenzi Tarn

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Accommodation: Mawenzi Tarn Camp

A shorter but steeper climb takes you to Mawenzi Tarn, a scenic camp set below the dramatic spires of Mawenzi Peak. This is one of the most beautiful camps on Kilimanjaro and a strong staging point before moving across the saddle toward Kibo.

ACCOMMODATION	ACCOMMODATION IMAGE
Mawenzi Tarn Camp	—

Day 5Mawenzi Tarn to Kibo Hut

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Accommodation: Kibo Hut Camp

Cross the broad saddle between Mawenzi and Kibo as you move into the alpine desert zone. The terrain feels remote and exposed, with the Kibo summit cone ahead. Arrive at Kibo Hut in time to rest, eat an early meal, and prepare for the summit attempt later that night.

ACCOMMODATION	ACCOMMODATION IMAGE
Kibo Hut Camp	—

Day 6Summit Attempt to Uhuru Peak and Descend to Horombo Hut

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Accommodation: Horombo Hut

Start the summit push around midnight and climb slowly toward Gilmanu2019s Point on the crater rim, then continue to Stella Point and Uhuru Peak. After reaching the summit and taking time for photos, descend carefully back to Kibo and continue down to Horombo Hut for a well-earned rest. This is the longest and most demanding day of the trek.

ACCOMMODATION	ACCOMMODATION IMAGE
Horombo Hut	—

Day 7Horombo Hut to Marangu Gate

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

After breakfast, continue descending through the moorland and rainforest zones to Marangu Gate, where the climb ends. Climbers who meet the required summit point receive their certificates before transfer onward. This marks the end of the Rongai Route 7 Days adventure with Hike Africa Tours and Safaris.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is special about the Rongai Route on Kilimanjaro?

The Rongai Route approaches Kilimanjaro from the northern side and is usually quieter than many other routes. It is known for a more gradual ascent profile and a peaceful mountain experience.

Is the 7-day Rongai Route good for acclimatization?

Yes. The 7-day Rongai Route is a good choice for acclimatization because the itinerary spreads the ascent more carefully and allows the body to adjust more steadily before summit night.

Does the Rongai Route use huts or tents?

The Rongai Route is a camping route. Climbers sleep in mountain tents during most of the trek, with the final descent section passing through Horombo Hut area on the Marangu side.

Who is this climb best for?

This climb is suitable for first-time Kilimanjaro trekkers, private travelers, friends, couples, and small groups who want a quieter trail and a steady climb toward the summit.

How hard is the summit day on the Rongai Route?

Summit day is the hardest part of the trek. It begins around midnight, reaches very high altitude, and includes a long climb up followed by a long descent. Good pacing, hydration, and acclimatization are very important.

Who organizes this package?

This Rongai Route 7 Days Kilimanjaro package is organized by Hike Africa Tours and Safaris.
